Dear Home Educator

I am writing to encourage your involvement in the upcoming Centenary of Armistice, one of the most significant commemorative occasions in our nation's history.

On Remembrance Day, Sunday, 11 November 2018, at 11am Tasmanians will join the rest of the nation in commemorating the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice. The Armistice led to the end of the Great War and was celebrated across the country, as communities welcomed the return of peace.

Tasmanian Schools and educators are invited to participate in the occasion by hosting or supporting events and activities in their local community.

The event could include a special service, research on local connections to the Armistice and Great War or other such activities. The official Armistice Centenary logo at the top of this letter can be used to show support and raise awareness of this important commemoration and celebration.

This national logo has been developed for use by government, local councils, ex-service organisations, veteran support groups and community organisations to promote their commemorative activities during this Centenary of Armistice period. Copies of the logo and associated guidelines are available at www.centenaryofanzac.tas.gov.au.

An official calendar of events is also being developed to promote all community events and activities being planned in the lead up to or on Remembrance Day. You can register your event at www.centenaryofanzac.tas.gov.au where it will be promoted in the calendar and other official communication avenues such as the Tasmania Centenary of ANZAC Facebook page, www.facebook.com/centenaryofanzac.

Thank you for your support in remembering the courage and sacrifice of our servicemen and women over the past 100 years.

Yours sincerely
