PRIZE

Win a trip to Belgium and France

Winners will be selected from around Tasmania.

The winners will be part of a Study Tour of Belgium and France for approximately 10 nights, pending appropriate travel warning clearances, to visit landmarks of war time through structured tours.

The Study Tour is lead by the Department of Communities and includes two teachers, a parliamentarian and a RSL representative.

The State Government will meet the cost of travel, transfers, accommodation and some meals for each winner and the chaperones, plus the cost of health and travel insurance.

ELIGIBILITY

The Frank MacDonal MM Memorial Prize is open to all Tasmanian year 9 students as well as home-schooled students at the same year level.

Entries can only be submitted by individual students.

BACKGROUND

Frank MacDonal MM was born in Ulverstone, Tasmania in 1896. He died on 23 August 2003 at the age of 107 as Tasmania's last World War I veteran.

Frank MacDonal MM was also the last of the 40th Infantry Battalion raised in World War I. He was responsible for repairing signal lines between battalion headquarters and trenches and received the Military medal for working courageously under heavy fire. He also served in World War II and received the Legion of Honour in 1998.

CLOSING DATE

The Project Officer must receive all entries by Friday 23 August 2019.

School students must submit their entry to their school in the first instance. If there are more than three entries submitted, the school will conduct its own selection process to determine the final three (maximum). Ask your teacher when your entry must be submitted for judging at school level.

If you are home-schooled, you can forward your entry directly to The Frank MacDonal MM Memorial Prize DoE - Professional Learning Institute Learning Events, GPO Box 169, Hobart 7001

All entrants will receive a Certificate of Participation.

Finalists receive a Finalist Certificate. Winners of the trip receive a Certificate of Excellence and are invited to attend the official presentation. Their schools will receive a plaque from the RSL for the year of the award. Their entries will also be published on The Frank MacDonal MM Memorial Prize website at: <https://www.education.tas.gov.au/students/awards-scholarships-students/>

JUDGING CRITERIA

The judging criteria for The Frank MacDonald MM Memorial Prize are those used in The National History Challenge.

HISTORICAL QUALITY (50%)
IS THE ENTRY:
Historically accurate?	The work must be factually correct and accurate.
Using a range of different sources of information?	This means that a variety of sources is used (where reasonably available).
Demonstrating a historical understanding of the period?	The work shows that you have understood the attitudes and values of the time being investigated.
Using evidence and information to create an effective discussion or presentation?	Successful history writing not only tells a story, but also shows analysis and interpretation. A question is set, and it is answered by the student.
RELATION TO QUESTION (20%)
DOES THE ENTRY:
Clearly relate to the theme?	At the end of your presentation the audience must see clearly how your investigation has helped to explain some aspects of the theme.
Present a valid historical response to the theme?
PRESENTATION (30%)
DOES THE ENTRY:
Show an original and creative interpretation or approach?	Is it all your own work? The work does not show plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the work or ideas of others in ways that give the impression that these are your own (i.e. Copying information word-for-word without using quotations and footnotes; paraphrasing an author's ideas, or using visuals or music without giving proper credit in footnotes).
Have a clear and logical organisation and effectively communicate its ideas?	The audience can clearly follow the progress of the work. The ideas and messages of the work are clear to the audience.
Have a bibliography and appropriately acknowledge sources?	You have included a list of the resources you have used in your investigation.

ENTRY FORMAT

Essay: Maximum 1200 words (not including references or quotes)

Audio-visual / ICT: This option requires students to submit a self-contained presentation using any or all of the following mediums:

- Digital presentation on CD/DVD/USB
- Or any other formats as long as the question is answered.

Entries other than essay format must be accompanied by a written statement of up to 500 words which will enable the presentation to stand on its own merits and be compared fairly with an essay. The statement should address the following questions:

- How was the research conducted?
- How is the research related to the format/presentation chosen?
- Why was this format chosen?
- What are your conclusions on the specific topic?

AUTHENTICITY OF WORK:

All entries submitted must be the student's original work and must not have been submitted in any other competition in previous years.

Students may submit the same or similar entry in The Frank MacDonald MM Memorial Prize as in other competitions / prizes in the same year.

REFERENCING:

Any part of the entrant's work that has been taken from another source must be referenced in a format that is consistent and accurate.

For a guide to referencing go to <http://historychallenge.org.au>

Entries in The Frank MacDonald Mm Memorial Prize do not require an annotated bibliography.
