

Information for Advertisement

Expression of Interest – Member, Tasmanian Home Education Advisory Council

The Minister for Education and Training is seeking Expressions of Interest from individuals who wish to be considered for appointment as a member of the Tasmanian Home Education Advisory Council. An opportunity currently exists for appointment of a person with home education experience either current or past, or to appoint a person with relevant skills and experience and an interest in home education.

Persons wishing to submit an Expression of Interest should include details of relevant personal experience or skills in home education. Applicants are encouraged to provide a short statement addressing each of the following as relevant:

- Background or experience in home education;
- Work experience and/or interests;
- If you do not have direct home education experience, what is it about home education that interests you;
- Statement of what you can offer as a THEAC member; and
- Names and contact details of at least two referees.

Information about the home education process in Tasmania is available at www.oer.tas.gov.au with information about the Tasmanian Home Education Advisory Council available at www.theac.tas.gov.au. Enquiries about the role may be directed to the THEAC Chair via email at chair@theac.tas.gov.au, or to the Education Registrar at registrar@oer.tas.gov.au.

Expressions of Interest close 5pm, Sunday 24 May 2020.

Applications should be forwarded via email to registrar@oer.tas.gov.au